Numb. 1911

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 10. to Thursday March 13. 1683.

Dantzick, March 5.

THey write from Cracow, that the King of Poland had received Letters from the Polish Commissioners at the Conference at Smolensko, wherein among other things they give his Majesty an account, that they found a great disposition in the Moscovites, to enter into a League with the Emperor and his Majesty against the Turks but that this Matter was to be treated at Moscow. That the King of Poland intended to part from Cracow about the end of this month, and to go to Leopol or some other place towards the Frontiers of Podolia, to view his Troops on that side, which it's not doubted, will besiege Caminiec so soon as the Weather will suffer it. That the Hospodar Dukas, who is a Prisoner, had written to the King of Poland, desiring his Majesty to grant him his Liberty, and assuring him, that he will employ the rest of his Life in his Service. The Sieur du Cros Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark to the King of Poland continues still here.

Vienna, March 4. We have an account from Presburgh, that most of the Nobility of the Lower Hungary were come thither, and had taken an Oath of Fidelity to the Emperor; and that the Count de Ziachi had presented himself to the Imperial Commissioners, on the behalf of many of the Nobility of the Upper-Hungary, who are desirous to lay hold on the Emperor's Pardon, but dare not repair to Presburgh, or send any Deputies thither, for fear of Count Teckeley, who has threatned those that do, with Fire and Sword. From Cracow they write, that the King of Poland makes great Preparations for the approaching Campagne, which his Majesty will begin very early, and with the Siege of Caminiec. That the Deputies of Count Teckeley continued under a Guard, and that the King had declared that he would receive no more Letters or Messages from him, but would treat him as the worst of his Enemies, unless he did immediately quit the Engagements he had with the Turks, and embrace the overture of Grace that was made him by the general Pardon which the Emperor had published in Hungary. There are Letters from Hungary which say, that the Grand Signior had caused 26 Bassas to be strangled, who were the creatures of the late Visier; and that he had declared he will command his Army in Person the next Campagne in Hungary. Our Governor the Count de Starembeg is not yet returned hither from Lintz. After the several reports we have had of the Garison of Newheusels having received some relief, it is now said, that they have not got any Supply of Provisions, but only a Sum of Money, which the Bassa of Buda sent them, that they may buy of the Country People; but that the Imperialists have taken what care they can to hinder them from being supplyed that way as well as any other.

Lintz, March 5. The Emperor, so soon as the Weather is a little warmer, will remove from hence to Crembs, which is about twelve Miles from Vienna. The Count de Wallasein, the Emperors Ambassador to the King of Poland is still here, but has orders to hasten his departure, that he may arrive at Cracow before the King leaves that place, which our last Letters from thence told us, he intended to do presently after Easter. The Imperial Commissioners, and the Ambassadors of Poland and Venice had their first meeting on the second instant, upon the receipt of their Powers; They have had several Conferences since, at which the Cardinal Bonvisi assisted on the part of the Pope, and have agreed all the Articles of the League, which, it's said, is writing over fair, in order to their signing it. The Count Serini General of the Elector of Bavaria's Troops, parted from hence some days agone for Munick, and we are told that it has been very earnestly recommended to him by the Emperors Ministers, to get the Forces of that Elector early into the Field. Our Letters from Hungary inform us, that a Party of Turks of Agria having passed the Tibisque near Onoth, with design to plunder and burn Debrezen, the Garison of Zatmar having notice of it, marched out, and falling upon them, killed a great many of them, and put the rest to flight. That the Turks have not hitherto dared to attempt the relief of Newheusel; but that they are now again drawing several Troops together near Buda and Agria, and providing great quantities of Provisions resolving to hazard it. That the Counts de Humany and Bargozzi having got some Troops together, they had burnt several places belonging to Count Teckeley and the Princess Ragotzi his Wife, not far from Monkatz and Beresar.

Francfort, March 7. Our Letters from Lintz give an account, that the Imperial Commission was opened at Presbourg the 18th of the last month. That many of the Hungarians that had taken part with Count Teckeley, were come in, and had laid hold on the Emperor's Pardon, and that it was not doubted but many others would follow their example. That the Troops of Lithuania had taken Bartfield in Upper-Hungary; and that they would attack Caschaw and Esperies so soon as the Weather would give them leave. That a Party of Turks had passed the Tibisque, intending to plunder Debrezen, but that the Poles and Imperialists had fallen upon them, killed several, and put the rest to flight; and that some days after they made an attempt upon Zatmar, but were repulsed and forced to retire with the loss of 60 men. We are told that the Elector of Cologne has offered to assist the Emperor with 12000 men against the Turks, in case a Peace or a Truce be established between the Empire and the Crown of France.

Hamburgh, March 10. The Heer Van Haitsen Ambassador from the States General of the United Provinces, to the King of Sweden is arrived here, and purposes in few days to continue his Journey. From Berlin they write, that the Castelan of Posnen was arrived there, with a train of above fourscore Persons, being sent by the King of Poland to invite his Electoral Highness to come into the Alliance against the Turks; and to adjust Matters with Relation to the Lands which the Margrave of Brandenburg, the Electors second Son possesses in Lithuania in right of his Wife the Princess Radzeville: And that the Count de Lamberg the Imperial Minister, and the Heer d'Amerongen the Dutch Envoy, were upon their departure for the Court of the Elector